PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Ladies and Gentlemen:

As you prepare to take your places in the world at large, it is my hope that you will find the caliber of your prpearation at "TJ" such that will stand you in good stead.

ALWAYS BELIEVE in your ability to do . . . you will find that most goals to which you aspire are achievable.

ALWAYS BELIEVE in yourselves . . . trust in your ability to make decisions and act in what you believe to be just and fair.

ALWAYS CONTINUE to exercise your minds and your growth will know no limits.

It is my hope that the Class of 1986 will, in the "Trekian" tradition, live long and prosper.

Sincerely,

B. Dunmore Ford

IF ONLY YOU KNEW

If only you knew about the joy I feel everytime
I hear your name
or think of you.

If only you knew
about the sensations that flow
when you say Darling.

If only you knew.
how much
I love you and need you.

LOVE'S SECRET

A love so binding and heart entwining
To me, that could never be
Until you slipped into my heart
Like a soft summer breeze
So sweetly and silently

You were the spark that removed
The eclipse from my heart
And shone your loving light in my door
You showed me you cared and made
Me aware of all in life
I missed before

So as I sit at home
Writing for you this poem
Of the love I'll never forget
I'll blow you a kiss and
Make this promise
That this love you'll never regret

Mr. M. Wilson

Dear Graduates,

You have attained the first rung on the ladder of success by fulfilling your scholarship and character requirements for graduation. I hope that you will not stop at this point.

As a student, you may have had experiences which went beyond that of the general requirements for graduation. I refer, of course, to the many extra-curricular activities and special events afforded you during your stay at Jefferson; athletic teams, chorus, clubs, Arista, math team, talent/fashion shows, to name just a few. If you were a participant, you are to be commended.

It is my earnest wish that you continue your education, since education never ceases with the granting of a diploma. Think of us often; come back and visit us from time to time.

Please accept my best wishes for a successful life.

Sincerely yours,

Moley C. Wilson

Be Somebody

Hanging out will get you nowhere.
You've got to be somebody.
Banging heads will get you nowhere.
You've got to be somebody.
The streets get you nowhere.
You've got to be somebody.
Your first dedication is to get an education and to set your destination.
Be somebody.

Succeed

You don't have a chance as it may seem. Your the one with the dream. Don't let go, get redeemed and succeed. You know what you have to do.
Sooner or later you'll come through it. You will, if you put your mind to it. You can,
if you think you can do it.

Creation Of A Flower

First I'll add some beauty
To captivate the mind
And everyone who looks at you
Would wish you were theirs instead of mine
Then I'll add fragrance
That would enchant your very soul
And everyone would envy me
For the flower that I own
Then I'll add some love
Enough to go around
And everytime I need love
You'd always be around
I'll cultivate you with love
And water you with my dreams
And every time you blossom
It would reflect a part of me
Enhanced by your intelligence
Devoured by your love
Surely you were a special gift
From the man up above
Compassion and love
Are the inner you
Eternity is not enough time
To be in love with you
Days will become seconds
As time passes away
But you will always be my flower
Until you wilt away.

WHY?

Why did I not notice her pain
That showed in her words, her eyes?
Why did I find it hard to explain
That I still lover her? When we argue, she cries.

These things I ask myself as I lay here
Trying to gather my feelings, my thoughts.
Why can't I show her how much I care
And appreciate the love she gives, she brought?

If only I can jump that barrier
That's rising higher and higher,
That's making it harder for me to see her love;
She mine.
Why, oh tell me, why, can't she see my desire
To keep her by my side until the end of forever,
The end of time?

Why why, someone please tell me
Before it's too late. She's gone, we part.
Why can't I make her see
That she's my life, my existence, my soul, my heart.

Why? Please tell me. Why?

By Shykwan

Where were you
When the lights went out?
In the bed in a pair
With the one who cared?

OR

In the street
Gettin' beat
By the one you thought
That you'd defeat.

Where were you
When all the damage was done?
When I was hurt,
You turned to run.
You heard my cries
And turned away.
How could I have lasted
Another day?
Here you are
On your knees,
Begging me
To forgive you, please.
What's true is true.
What's done is done.
Now, you watch me
Turn and run.

LITTLE MOTHER

Little mother, don't be blue,
Having that baby was up to you.
Little mother, don't be sad,
Changing diapers isn't so bad.
Little mother, though you admit your mistake,
That baby's still going to keep you awake.
Little mother, don't cry now,
Just because the father's out doing the town.
Little mother, don't hit that boy,
He's suppoed to bring you joy.
Little mother, don't let him cry,
Pick him up and sing a lullaby.
Little mother, listen good:
The crying you heart is motherhood.
Little mother, isn't it a shame,
Being little and playing a grown-up game.

— Tony "Fantasy" B.

I once knew a boy named Jerome,
Who always escorted me home.
One day he got bold
And tried to grab hold.
God rest the soul of Jerome.

— Vashine Brown

There once was a man from Otter
Who melted as the weather got hotter
While walking down the street
He melted to sleet
And a cop picked him up with a blotter.

— Wayne Schulman

NIGHTMARES

I keep standing when I should be walking.
Looking at the pictures on the wall.
I keep quiet when I should be talking.
I just don't make any sense at all.

I remember when I was much younger.
There I was lying in my bed.
Among all my toys and pillows.
My mother there to ease my head.

Mama, mama, I keep having nightmares.
Mama, mama, do you love me still?
Mama, mama, mama hold me tightly.
Mama, mama, mama am I ill?

Now it's different, I am much older.
There's no one there who'll understand.
My guide has gone beyond these walls.
There's no one here to hold my hand

So I'm left standing in the corner.
I'll keep my face turned to the wall.
These fading dreams, fading nightmares.
These shooting stars, where do they fall?

— Chrissandra Young

MA

A gentle caring soul
A guiding light to tomorrow
A warm place from the cold
An escape from pains and sorrow

A person who lets you be you
A true miraculous wonder
A force to hold on to
When it seems you're going under

A unique individual
An angel from above
The lady I call "Ma"
Whom always I will love

RULES OF LOVE

Pressure me when I'm afraid
Miss me when I'm away
Keep the vows we made
Believe in what I say.
Laugh with me when I'm happy
Cry with me when I'm blue
And when you love me, really love me
Prove your love is true.
Correct me when I'm wrong
Stand by me when I'm right
Think of me in the morning
Dream of me at night.
Comfort me when I'm lonely
Have faith in what I do
Follow me to the end
As I would follow you.
Kiss me softly and gently
Hold me tender but tight
When you say you love me
Mean it with all your might.
And if you really mean this
From the bottom of your heart
Our love will last forever
Even death can't do us part.
Forgive me when I'm not myself
Try to understand
First put your arms around me
And tightly hold my hand.
God bless you when you say your prayers
The way I pray for you
Tell him with all your heart
To keep our young love true.
Keep these rules of love
With everything you have to give
Though rules were made to be broken
Our love was made to live.

FOOTBALL TEAM

A PERSPECTIVE

The Big Orange Wave is a proud football team that has won five city championships, and sixteen division titles. It is a team rich in tradition, which has beaten the best teams in Pennsylvania, New York, and New Jersey. It is a team that has produced many players who have gone to be college all-Americans and all-pro players. It is a team that is hard-working, disciplined, and loyal. It is these qualities that have made the Big Orange Wave the standard by which all other football teams in NYC are judged.
